

The Wyoming Department of Education presents:

Reducing Their Risk:

A "Roadshow" of Adolescent Risk Reduction Strategies

WHEN: Friday, October 8, 2010 - 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Snow King Resort, Jackson, WY

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? School Administrators; Counselors, Social Workers, Psychologists; Teachers; School Nurses; Youth-Serving Agencies & Community-Based Organizations; interested others.

WHO ARE THE TRAINERS? Sandy Birkholz, M.A., WDE Master Trainer and Sheridan Jr. High Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher, Gay Hughes, WDE Master Trainer and Riverton High School Health Coordinator.

This workshop will teach and reinforce activities that can be used in community groups, classrooms and other arenas with students to:

Tackle the 2009 Youth Risk Behavior Survey (YRBS) data; identify challenges and the strategies to use while working with our youth in these high risk areas.

Examine research based curricula that are approved for use in Wyoming; such as: Becoming a Responsible Teen (BART), Focus on Kids, Can We Talk?

Participate in fun sexuality educational activities that teach in fun and engaging ways!

Scan the differences between Sexuality Education delivery methods – recognize your districts unique needs and the road map you may need to follow as you gauge your efforts.

- Lunch and Materials Provided
- PTSB, Nursing, and Mental Health Credits pending
- Training is FREE!!!

Contact Meaghan McClellan at mmccle@educ.state.wy.us or (307) 777.3339.

Register at: www.wyhc.org